Location description

Sandy beaches, ancient monuments and untouched natural landscapes - Didim, located on the Turkish Aegean Sea, leaves nothing to be desired and allows for an unforgettable vacation. The seaside resort enchants with its bathing and water sports facilities. But not only sun worshippers, also culture and nature lovers are in good hands here.

Didim is located in the west of Turkey in the province of Aydın. It is about 80 kilometers south to the well-known Bodrum and the airport. The city of Kuşadası is about 77 kilometers away in the north. Didim is mainly known as a family seaside resort. Holidaymakers will find numerous beaches and bays in the area, which invite them to relax. However, it is not only the beach that is a great place to spend time, the colorful underwater world also magically attracts snorkelers and divers.

The ancient history, which goes back to the 2nd millennium BC, can still be felt everywhere in the surroundings of Didim. Many of the sights are well preserved.
